

Additional Tutorial Questions, EC 4020B

Question A: Outline the trends in international migration in recent decades. Assess the options for and prospects of breaking the gridlock on global labour migration.

Question B: Outline the merits of open borders for global development and what are the impacts of migrants on developed country populations?

Question C: Outline the case for man-made climate change. What are the economic impacts of climate change?

Question D: Comment the following statement: "Carbon markets are the best way to deal with climate change from an economic point of view".